

WEDNESDAY MARCH 20th TIME: 5:00 PM - 7:15 PM

PETER GRAHAM COMMONS, BIRD LIBRARY, ROOM 114

Department of African American Studies presents

CHICAGO & THE BLACK ARTS MOVEMENT

JOHN L JOHNSON LECTURE

Dr. Thabiti Lewis, associate professor of English and African American Literature at Washington State University will discuss Chicago as a cultural center for Black art and visual culture during the Black Arts Movement (1965-1975).

Q&A will follow and light refreshments will be served.

