

Department of African American Studies

Pan African Studies Information Webinar Invitation, Wednesday, December 2, 2015 from 7-8:00 p.m. (EST)

Please join us for the webinar presentation about the Pan African Studies (PAS) graduate degree program at Syracuse University with a basic review of the application process for applying for fall 2016 admission.

This presentation will be facilitated by Drs. Kishi Animashaun Ducre, Chairperson and Associate Professor and Horace Campbell, Professor and Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of African American Studies (AAS).

Joining them to answer student questions will be the following AAS faculty members:

- Dr. Linda Carty,
- Dr. Kwame Dixon,
- Dr. Herbert Ruffin, and
- Dr. Kheli Willetts.

What: Pan African Studies Information Session.

Who: All students who are interested in earning a MA degree from Syracuse University should attend this webinar.

When: Wednesday, December 2, 2015 from 7:00 – 8:00 p.m. (EST).

RSVP: Please register for this upcoming information session:

https://webconference.syr.edu/pas_registration/event/registration.html